

A very interesting program was rendered at the M. E. Church Sunday night.

Mr. J. Murphy and wife of Benties ville arrived in the city Sunday evening.

Mrs. Alberta Williams and little son, after spending several days in Oklahoma City, returned home Sunday.

Mrs. Loula T. Williams, one of our popular business women, visited Muskogee Sunday.

Mrs. J. J. Whitney and little son are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Pierce, 1208 N. Madison St.

After a delightful trip to Kansas city Rev. C. H. Tucker was with his people Sunday, and preached excellent sermons.

Mrs. Julia Jones, who resided at 321 N. Frankfort St., will be buried from the Home Undertaking Company No. 2.

There are 70 pupils in Booker T. Washington High School, an increase of nine for the second term; in Booker T. Washington Grammar School, there are 185 students, an increase of 181 over the first term. The second term of Dunbar started off with 117 students, 181 over the first term.

Dr. R. L. Bridgewater, one of our large property owners, has had an other real house erected on his Cameron Street property.

POPULAR BUSINESS MAN OF TULSA:

Die While on a Visit to Muskogee.

The son of Mrs. Katie Payne returned home from a sailor trip, Friday morning. The home was made very happy of both boys, Commodore Payne, a soldier, and L. W. Payne, a sailor.

Mr. Cecil Rowe, who has been serving Uncle Sam, returned home last week. He was accompanied by his father, Mr. Robert S. Lewis, who is now in Muskogee.

Mr. W. H. Goodwin, of the firm of Goodwin and Jackson, Undertakers, went to Muskogee Monday morning to look after the remains of Mr. A. W. Wright.

Mr. W. H. Smith, who is erecting one of the prettiest brick buildings in the city, owned by the Race, visited Kansas City Friday, returning home Sunday.

Mrs. Neddy, Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Gentry and Rev. Tucker were among those who attended the funeral of Mr. Wimberly Nance, who died in Colorado last week, and buried at Okmulgee today, (Monday).

Miss Geneva Johnson has returned home from Ft. Smith, Ark., where has spent an extended visit with relatives.

Prof. James Benson, the excellent young educator, who is teaching at Jenks, was in to see us last Saturday, and brought us $1.50, a year's subscription for Mr. J. S. Audings, who resides on B. St., Tulsa. Prof. Benson said that he intended to bring us in many subscribers.

MUSKOGEE

among the many Tulsans seen here this week.

Don't forget The Tulsa Star can be had each week at King's Palace, 134 S. 2nd street.

Mr. G. H. Ambrose who has been active in bringing Negro celebrities to Oklahoma and Muskogee, is hopeful of having Mr. Roland B. Hayes, the famous tenor, come to Muskogee soon. Mr. Ambrose was sponsor for the visit of Mrs. Patti Brown, which was a rare treat to the large and appreciative audience that greeted the sweet singer.

All the leading Negro journals, of course The Tulsa Star, at King's every week.

"Uncle" Jess Brown of the Pastime Theatre, was in Tulsa on business this week.

Mrs. (Mae) Robert Hill went to Kansas City this week for a visit with relatives.

Miss (?) Gacine Burgess (?) was here from Tulsa last week.

Mr. N. W. Simmons, formerly of Duluth, Minnesota, an expert contractor and builder, has decided to locate in our city, is offering his services to the public. He has had many years of experience as mechanic and comes to us highly recommended, having erected scores of good buildings throughout the country. See his advertisement elsewhere in The Star.

Die While on a Visit to Muskogee.

Mr. A. W. S. Wright, a member of the firm of Wright Thompson Drug Co., one of the Race's foremost enterprisers, left here last Friday to transact business in Muskogee, and while there, was taken ill, and died Sunday night. Mr. Wright left the city in good health, and his death unexpected. He was well-known throughout Oklahoma, and was a man full of push. He had numerous friends, who sympathized with the family in their bereavement.

When in Haskell, Visit STRADFORD'S CAFE BEST HOME COOKING Up-to-Date MEALS in Any STYLE. Cold Drinks, Tobaccos and Cigars C. STRADFORD, Prop. Post Office Box 281 East Main St., Tulsa, Okla.

The Dixie Theatre gave us an order for printing dodgers for a high-class company that is filling a week's engagement at that place.

Detective Smitherman and Officer Warren picked up Joe Watkins Sunday with about 12 gallons of "Choc." There were also gaming going on, which cost Watkins $60 for the "Choc" and $10 for gambling.

Mrs. S. A. Rivers died Sunday on North Exeter Street, and the funeral will occur today, February 18, from the Jackson Undertaking Parlor.

Mr. Jesse Jackson died at 811 E. Easton St., and the funeral will occur from the Jackson Goodwin Undertaking Parlor.

The following prominent citizens of Muskogee were here Tuesday to assist in setting up a Past Master's Council: Hons. F. J. Gordon, P. G. M., F. W. Hawkins, P. G. M., E. N. Gilroy, P. G. M. These men are Race lovers and enjoyed themselves hugely while here.

Miss Frances Brown served dinner last Sunday for Mrs. Mabel Carr, Mrs. Beatrice Starr, Mr. Rochon, Mr. Barnes, Prof. Giddings at the home of Mr. Walker, at 415 Davenport st. It was some dinner and all enjoyed immensely.

THE WHITE FOIKS down in Louisiana lynched another Colored man last week; the white press claims that the Colored man went to a white woman's room, hence the lynching. It seems since the war ended, the American white man is worse on the Negro than ever.

MISS H. A. EATON, one of our excellent women, and a lover of Race enterprises, sent The Star four yearly readers, viz: Mrs. Rosetta Childs, H. G. Stroud, Okla., Mr. George Washington, H. G. Stroud, Okla., Mr. D. A. Brooks, H. G. Stroud, Okla., and Mrs. Willie McAlister, Stroud. We are indeed proud of the assistance Miss Eaton is rendering the paper, and we trust to have more of our people to do likewise. When the leaders manifest the proper interests in our papers, they will be a success.

Mr. L. D. Johnson, the popular taxi man, who has been in Park Sanitarium at Guthrie, returned home this week looking "fine and dandy." Mr. Johnson was greatly improved, and is held in his praises of Dr. Conrad and his institution.
